

Amendment 1.3.1: Under ARTICLE IV SCOUT LEADERS, SECTION 4.0 Patrol Leadership

IV.4.1 The Senior Patrol Leader shall appoint an Historian, Librarian, Quartermaster and Scribe with the concurrence of the Scoutmaster. Additionally, he may appoint Den Chiefs, Chaplain Aide, and Bugler, and other positions approved or created by the Scoutmaster as required.

Amendment 1.3.2: Under ARTICLE V YOUTH MEMBERS, SECTION 1.0 Membership

V.1.4 A youth member will be considered an active participant in the Troop program only if he is present for more than ~~35/40~~ 50 % of the Scout Days in a given Scout Year.

Amendment 1.3.3: Under ARTICLE VI POLICIES, SECTION 4.0 Prohibited Equipment

Equipment related to but not limited to firearms, parts of firearms, sheath knives, fireworks, martial arts weapons and archery equipment are prohibited at any Troop function. Use of firearms and archery equipment at an official BSA function, (e.g. Summer Camp) under the direct control and supervision of a qualified adult shall be exempted. Any electronic entertainment device shall be prohibited at any Scouting function, with the exception of personal audio devices, cellular phones and hand held games at the discretion of the Scoutmaster. Exceptions may be granted only by approval of the Committee and ~~shall~~ should be requested at least one month prior to event. Possession of these articles without an expressed exemption shall be grounds for immediate confiscation and possible expulsion. Where appropriate, legal authorities may become involved. In any case, increased parental or guardian supervision shall be required at all Troop activities.

Amendment 1.3.4: Under ARTICLE VII PROGRAM, SECTION 4.0 Courts of Honor

VII.4.2 Troop Courts of Honor will be held ~~quarterly~~ regularly, as set forth in the Troop 110 Parent Handbook. All Scouts earning awards and advancements during the previous quarter will be recognized. Scouts earning merit badges will be presented the appropriate merit badge and card. Scouts earning advancement will be presented a badge of rank and appropriate card. The Troop will provide each Scout's parent or guardian with a pin representing each rank advancement earned, and other appropriate recognition will be presented.

Amendment 1.3.5: UNDER ARTICLE VII PROGRAM, SECTION 8.0 Conduct

VII.8.3 Serious or continued breaches of discipline may result in the Scout being required to appear before the PLC, under the supervision of the Scoutmaster, for disciplinary ~~action~~ review.

Amendment 1.3.6: UNDER ARTICLE IX TROOP FINANCES, SECTION 3.0
Expenditures

IX.3.1 Each Scout shall be responsible for all fees associated with Scout-related activities, including monthly Patrol dues, annual registration, Boy's Life subscription, uniform, books, personal gear, monthly Patrol dues if applicable, and other expenses not specifically listed as paid by the Committee.